

Archer Casing Mill

Archer Casing Mills are designed for milling long sections of casing, tubing and wide range of tubular products. The mills are dressed with latest inserts technology, which provide maximum footage and high rates of penetration. The continuous chip breaking design produce small light weighted cuttings for better wellbore cleaning and longer life of the mill.

Casing mills are available in standard sizes or can be special ordered to any length and OD to meet the specific requirements of the job.

Specifications

Casing diameter, in	Top Connection, BOX	Fishing neck diameter, in	Bottom Connection, PIN
7"-8"	NC50	6 ½	NC38
9 ¾"- 10 ¾"	6 ¾ Reg	8	NC50
13 ¾"- 14"	7 ¾ Reg	9 ½	6 ¾" Reg

Other sizes available on request. Contact your Archer Representative for more technical information.